COREY KILLIAN is a Music Education and Saxophone Performance Major at the University of Connecticut, anticipating graduation in Spring 2013.

As a student at Trumbull High School in Trumbull, CT, Corey participated in numerous award-winning ensembles including the Symphonic Band, Jazz Band, and Marching Band. He also participated in the 2008 CMEA Western Connecticut Music Festival, where he earned the honor of first chair Alto Saxophone in the Wind Ensemble. Currently, Corey performs with the University of Connecticut Wind Ensemble and UCONN Saxophone Quartet, which has traveled to numerous saxophone conferences and symposiums. In the summer of 2010, Corey traveled to Europe with the UCONN Saxophone quartet and studied under numerous prestigious saxophonists including Arno Bornkamp and Johan Von Der Linden of the Aurelia Quartet, John Harle, and Rob Buckland. He has previously participated in the university Marching Band, usical theater settings. He currently studies under United States Coast Guard saxophonist Greg Case.

Corey would like to thank his family and friends for their patience and endless support throughout his musical career. He would also like to thank Greg Case, who has been an inspiration as both a musician and person.

ANNETTE SHAPIRO, piano, received her Master of Music from the University of Connecticut where she studied with Joseph Villa and Neal Larrabee. Ms. Shapiro has been a member of the Hop River Chamber Players since 1981, and continues to freelance as an accompanist and in chamber music performances at UConn and throughout the eastern Connecticut and Hartford areas. She has taught piano as a lecturer at UConn, for its Community School of the Arts, and for the Hartford Conservatory of Music and Dance. Annette, her husband Paul, and son Sam reside in Storrs.
